The Douglas County FEAST is a way to:

- Build community
- Strengthen existing projects
- Launch new projects with community support and involvement
- Identify community food needs, resources and opportunities
- Improve health and nutrition in Douglas County
- Support our local food and agriculture economy

At the Douglas County FEAST you will:

- Learn about local food and farming
- Share knowledge, ideas, and concerns
- Identify what we want, create a plan, and begin taking action for change

We will address issues such as:

- Hunger and nutrition
- Access to local food
- Local agriculture and food production
- Youth opportunities

Presenter:

Sharon Thornberry, Community Food Systems Manager, Oregon Food Bank
